NOTE CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, and Section 21E of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements relating to anticipated quarterly Fab capacity, foundry capital expenditure plan and other statements that are not historical information.

These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual performance, financial condition or results of operations of UMC to be materially different from what is stated or may be implied in such forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned that actual events and results could differ materially from those statements as a result of a number of factors including, but not limited to: (i) dependence upon the frequent introduction of new services and technologies based on the latest developments in the industry in which UMC operates; (ii) the intensely competitive semiconductor, communications, consumer electronics and computer industries and markets; (iii) the risks associated with international business activities; (iv) dependence upon key personnel; (v) general economic, political and industry conditions, including cyclical downturn of semiconductor markets and geopolitical conflict between U.S., China and Taiwan; (vi) possible disruptions in commercial activities caused by natural and human-induced events and disasters, including natural disasters, terrorist activity, armed conflict, highly contagious diseases, and pandemics; (vii) reduced end-user purchases relative to expectations and orders; (viii) regulatory development and legal proceedings, including any ongoing litigation; (ix) fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; (x) disruption in global supply chain affecting the semiconductor industry and (xi) challenges and difficulties in collaboration agreements with partners and customers. Further information regarding these and other risks is included in UMC's filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, including UMC's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025. All information provided in this release is as of the date of this release and is based on assumptions that UMC believes to be reasonable as of this date, and UMC does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required under applicable law.

The financial statements included in this release are prepared and published in accordance with Taiwan International Financial Reporting Standards, or TIFRSs, recognized by the Financial Supervisory Commission in the ROC, which is different from International Financial Reporting Standards, or IFRSs, issued by the International Accounting Standards Board. Investors are cautioned that there may be significant differences between TIFRSs and IFRSs. In addition, TIFRSs and IFRSs differ in certain significant respects from generally accepted accounting principles in the ROC and generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

This presentation is not an offer of securities for sale or the solicitation of any offer to buy any securities for sale in the United States or anywhere else. No part of this presentation shall form the basis of or be relied upon in connection with any contract or commitment whatsoever. Specifically, securities may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act. Any public offering of securities to be made in the United States will be made by means of a prospectus that may be obtained from the issuer at the time of such offering that will contain detailed information about the company and management, as well as applicable financial statements.
